Abraham Lincoln is in the Wrestling Hall of Fame. Defeated only once in approximately 300 matches, Lincoln reportedly talked a little smack in the ring. According to Carl Sandburg's biography of Lincoln, Honest Abe once challenged an entire crowd of onlookers after dispatching an opponent: "I'm the big buck of this lick. If any of you want to try it, come on and whet your horns." There were no takers.

Red Rocks Amphitheatre is known for its natural acoustics.
The amphitheater's two 300-foot sandstone monoliths,
Ship Rock and Creation Rock, create a natural acoustic wonderland.
The walls keep sound in without the need for a roof, and the elevation of 6,450 feet means sound travels more slowly.

You know you are from Colorado when...

- You always know which way is west.
- You know what its like to accidentally unlock someone else's Subaru Outback.
- You're always waiting for the moment your entire state erupts into wildfires every June through August.
- Everyone knows that nothing stops CU students from celebrating at Norlin Quad every April 20th.
- You know we all have to do whatever it takes to keep from being overrun by Californians. (Sorry, Californians.)
- You know every band from Colorado, regardless of how few hits they had.
- You've met an actual, real-life Cowbro.
- You've struggled with having too many beers to choose from.
- At some point, Casa Bonitas made you think that cliff diving was a viable career option.
- You're familiar with the sublime weirdness of Big Sur Waterbeds commercials.
- You were always jealous that Jake Jabs got to play with baby tigers in all those American Furniture Warehouse commercials.
- You don't understand why everyone thinks it's weird that there's a crazy, red-eyed bronco outside the Denver International Airport.
- And you've got no idea what they're up to in those mountain towns. Case in point: Frozen Dead Guy Days in Nederland, Colo.

THE FOLLOWING CHECKLIST CAN HELP YOU TAKE STEPS TO KEEP YOURSELF SAFER ONLINE.

○ CHECK YOUR COMMENTS AND IMAGES.

Have you posted anything inappropriate or illegal, like threats, nudity, alcohol, or drugs?

○ TALK TO YOUR FRIENDS ABOUT WHAT'S OK TO POST.

Agree that you won't post embarrassing or hurtful comments or images of each other. Be clear that you'll delete – or if needed, report – any posts that are inappropriate, illegal, threatening, or could get you in trouble.

○ REVIEW YOUR ACCOUNT SETTINGS.

Always ask yourself – what is on my profile and who can see it?

○ KNOW YOUR FRIENDS, CONTACTS, AND FOLLOWERS.

These are the people who can see, share, and comment on what you post so you want to be sure you can trust them. Block and report anyone who makes harassing, threatening, or inappropriate comments.

○ KEEP AN EYE ON 3RD PARTY AND CONNECTED APPS.

Some of these will allow you to log into one app using account information from another. Be careful, as this may allow the company access to your profile information.

○ DON'T FORGET MOBILE.

When you use mobile devices like smartphones and tablets to post something or check in, you could also be sharing your location. Check your settings to make sure you're only sharing what you want to.

○ REPORT.

You have the right to be safe online. If anyone cyberbullies you, make a report to the website or app. If anyone shares or asks you to share sexual messages or images, make a report to CyberTipline.org.

As a Veteran, when someone raises their hand for help, you're often one of the first ones to respond. But it's also okay to get help for yourself. Maybe you want or need assistance with employment, stress, finances, mental health or finding the right resources. No matter what it is, you earned it. And there's no better time than right now to ask for it. Don't wait. Reach out.
